PRESIDENT'S NEW YEAR MESSAGE

On behalf of our Board of Directors, I extend best wishes to each of you for a healthy, happy and prosperous 2012. We have a strong, committed group of Board Members. I hope each of you will continue your commitment to active participation in our organization in 2012. Our finances are solid. With financial security, we have planned a plethora of social events for our members in 2012. The list of events is set out within this Newsletter. Please mark the dates of Irish Society events on your calendar to insure your participation in our activities. I encourage you to bring an Irish friend so we can continue to increase our membership. Speaking of members, please note that all members are welcome to attend our quarterly Board of Directors meetings: February 8, May 9, August 29 and November 28. Your attendance allows the Board to hear your suggestions and make The Irish Society a stronger organization. We look forward to seeing you at the 2012 Board of Directors meetings.

Please make yourself available to attend our “Annual Members Meeting and Open House” at the Center for Irish Studies located at 4206 Yoakum on January 24, 2012 at 6:30PM.

We are also fortunate to have two new, youthful Directors: Patrick Keegan and Joe O'Rourke. These two fine lads will be reaching out to our younger members for suggestions on activities and programs which will attract our younger Irish community.

As with all charitable organizations, our future is dependent on active involvement of the younger generation. We are fortunate to have the commitments of Patrick Keegan, Joe O'Rourke, Gregory Horan & Neil Miggins to provide leadership for years to come. 2012 shapes up as the most active year in our history. The events we have planned are intended to provide each of you with an opportunity to enjoy your Irish heritage. Together, The Irish Society will grow stronger and better. Slainte!
